

Sustainable Scotland Network

Growth Deals and Regional Economic Partnerships

Louisa Harvey

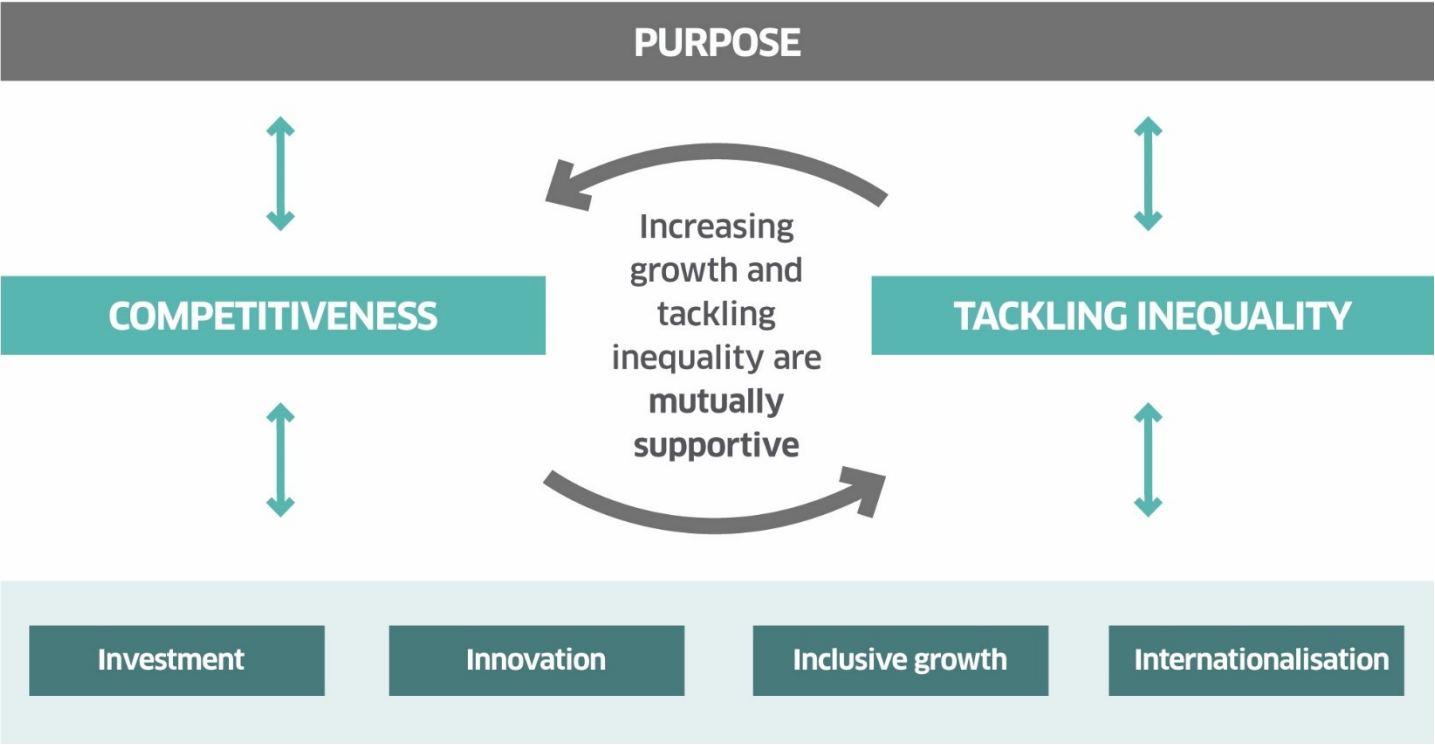

13 December 2018

Scottish Government
Riaghaltas na h-Alba
gov.scot

Scotland's Economic Strategy

SCOTLAND'S ECONOMIC STRATEGY

Using an inclusive growth lens

How do City Region and Growth Deals contribute to Inclusive Growth?

City Region and Growth Deals

Full deals for Glasgow City Region Deal (2014), Aberdeen City and Shire (2016), Inverness & Highlands (2016) and Edinburgh City Region (2018)

Heads of Terms for Stirling and Clackmannanshire and Tay Cities

Advanced Stage Ayrshires and Borderlands

UKG commitment to Moray

In development Falkirk, Moray, Argyll and Bute and the Islands

What Are Growth Deals

- Led by place - Collaboration and partnership working
- Long term and sustainable growth
- Drive inclusive economic growth
- Strong focus on investment, skills and R&D
- Maximise additional investment and job creation

- Proposals should be
 - Transformational
 - Inclusive
 - Sustainable

Contribution to Climate Change

Actions

CIRCULAR ECONOMY

#104835927

Contribution to Climate Change Actions

- Aberdeen CRD– Oil and Gas Technology Centre
- Inverness and Highland CRD – fuel poverty/ carbon emissions
- Stirling and Clacks CRD – Environment Centre/Active Travel/ energy efficiencies
- Tay Cities – Eden Campus / renewable energy and decommissioning/transport

Regional Economic Partnerships

- Self assembled around bespoke requirements for area. All key partners, including business
- Economic Vision for area to maximise opportunities and tackle key challenges
- No compulsion from SG – but expectation from terms of funding through growth deal investment
- Opportunity for contribute to climate change objectives

